Kerang Primary School regards child safety a priority. The School Council have endorsed that all teaching staff (both permanent and casual) at our school will, at all times, adhere to the Victorian Teaching Service Code of Conduct, as published by the Victorian Institute of Teaching. The above document is available to all teaching staff online via the Victorian Institute of Teaching website.

Code of Conduct for Non-Teaching Staff:

Persons working within our school (paid and volunteer) are to observe the following:

- Be familiar with and follow the procedures contained within the Strategies to Embed a Culture of Child Safety at Kerang Primary School document.
- Be familiar with and follow the procedures contained within the following policies
  - Anaphylaxis Policy
  - Asthma Policy
  - Child Safety Policy
  - Child Protection Reporting Policy
  - Emergency Management Plan
  - ICT Policy
  - First Aid Policy
  - Medication Management Policy
  - Responding to Intruders Procedures DET
  - Supervision Policy
  - Visitors Policy
  - Working with Children Check Policy

Kerang Primary School is committed to the safety and wellbeing of children and young people. Our school community recognises the importance of, and a responsibility for, ensuring our school is a safe, supportive and enriching environment which respects and fosters the dignity and self-esteem of children and young people, and enables them to thrive in their learning and development.

This Code of Conduct aims to protect children and reduce any opportunities for child abuse or harm to occur. It also assists in understanding how to avoid or better manage risky behaviours and situations. It is intended to complement child protection legislation, Department policy, school policies and procedures and professional standards, codes or ethics as these apply to staff and other personnel.

The Principal and school leaders of Kerang Primary School will support implementation and monitoring of the Code of Conduct, and will plan, implement and monitor arrangements to provide inclusive, safe and orderly schools and other learning environments. The Principal and school leaders of Kerang Primary School will also provide information and support to enable the Code of Conduct to operate effectively.

All staff, contractors, volunteers and any other member of the school community involved in child-related work are required to comply with the Code of Conduct by observing expectations for appropriate behaviour below.

The Code of Conduct applies in all school situations, including school camps and in the use of digital technology and social media.
