Inclusion and diversity

Kerang Primary School strives to provide a safe, inclusive and supportive school environment which values the human rights of all students and staff.

Kerang Primary School community has a culture that recognises and caters for people of First Nations, cultural diversity and special needs. We encompass learning environments, cultural celebrations, teaching strategies and resources to support such inclusion.

At Kerang Primary School we value the human rights of every student and we take our obligations under anti-discrimination laws and the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities seriously.

Kerang Primary School will:

- Actively nurture and promote a culture where everyone is treated with respect and dignity

Students are exposed to specific learning programs that surround these forms of inclusion and diversity. The majority of this learning work is in counted on special occasion days and through our weekly Respectful Relationships Program.
